ANNOUNCING

PLYMOUTH & DeSOTO

SALES And SERVICE

I have been appointed local dealer for Plymouth and DeSoto automobiles, and am opening a sales room and service department, across the street from Tally's Cafe. A full line of parts for Plymouth, Dodge, DeSoto and Chrysler cars and Dodge Trucks will be carried at all times. Will also have experienced mechanics to look after your repair work.

Used Car Sales

We will have on hand at all times good Used Cars. If you want to buy or trade, be sure to come in to see me. Come around to see me, and let's talk over plans for new or used Cars, or Repair jobs.

Still Selling Mules

I am continuing my Mule business and will have a number on hand at all times. Don't trade unless until you see me.

HONORED AT DINNER

Albert L. Farris, recently discharged from the U. S. Army, was honored with a home-cooking dinner Sunday, Nov. 18, at the home of his father, W. L. Farris.

Guests on the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ballard, Panama City, Fla.; Miss Bonnie Farris, Dothan; all of Elba.

Miss Nettie Fleuronoy returned to Thomaston Sunday, Nov. 18, the day after a visit with Elba relatives.

THE CHRISTIAN AND HIS ECONOMIC RELATIONS

LESSON TEXT: Deut. 8:17, 18; Luke 12:13-21.

GOD'S TEXT: A man's life constitutes not in the abundance of the things which he has.

Peace and prosperity have not been had, and in fact the entire world, plunged into tremendous economic problems far too deep for any man or group of men to solve. We have men who are abhorring day and night to meet the threat of unemployment, the question of reconversion and readjustment to civilian problems, the fear of feeding a hungry world, etc. But we see that those cannot find the answers in the wisdom which God has given them.

We need to turn anew to the economic principles taught in God's Word.
If we will do this, we will find them, and deal with their fellow-men in the light of their teaching, the many knotty problems will surly be solved.

There is need, first of all, of a fundamental philosophy concerning possessions which will make man deal properly with them. The first section of our lesson says to us:

I. Think Right About Wealth (Deut. 8:17, 18).

How tremendous and staggering fitting is the truth of this scripture.
Nothing could describe our times more succinctly and accurately than verse 17. Men are glorying in their ability to do big things.

Man has strayed so far as to develop a weapon of warfare, the atomic bomb, so powerful that he feels it might be used to end our civilization. Ever popular leaders are now saying that we must have a spiritual rebirth if we are to use our strengths for good and not for evil. Man must be God now more than ever.

We know that the hand and brilliant brain produce excellent and thrilling results. But our question is: How many are there who say, God has done this thing?
He gave us the strength in the first place. His is the honor? Some are thus recognizing Him, but they are far from doing so. It is a lie when we say in their hearts, "My power and the might of mine hand hath gotten me this wealth" (v. 17).

Joseph Pitman, Right About Wealth (Luke 12:13-21).

Most of us think of money as something we can hold in our hands and keep ourselves. But it belongs to God, and we are only his stewards, we must put away that impulse. "Take heed," said Jesus, "that ye not be led away by evil (v. 15). It is a deadly and deadly sin, all too common even among Christian people.

The teaching of this whole passage of Scripture is so directly opposite to all ideas regarding such matters accepted by the world at large that it is an entire surprise to some readers and attendants at Bible school.

The yardstick of this whole passage of Scripture is the world in its whole, individual, communal, or nation, yes, even for many a church, is the possession of wealth, power, or other "things." We find it laid heavy on the hearts and minds of our boys and girls. "A man's life consists not in the abundance of the things he has."

The one who was known to his friends (and to himself) as "a rich man" (v. 16), but when God called him to heaven he was called into the presence of God to give an account of his stewardship (v. 17). He was a steward, situated and had the same attitude, what will you say in that day?

There is an important point which must not be overlooked.
Repudiated the command of God and he was to be given to the "torture of everlasting fire."

Those who are ignorant of the general meaning of the New Testament as a social reformer, or the "judge and divider" of some new economic order, should read it and need to read and ponder the verse.

Every Christian is interested deeply in social problems, but knows that the first concern of Christ and His followers is the souls of men.

"WHISTLING JIMMIE"
IS COMING AGAIN

Here we are approaching another glorious and happy time of the year. With peace here again and war ended, and our loved ones returning home, let us give our praises and thanks unto God. At this time of the year the Salvation Army has greater demands bringing comfort and cheer to thousands of service men and to the unfortunate.

I am kindly asking your support and cooperation in a special drive to raise $200 in Elba for the Salvation Army. It will be greatly appreciated. God will bless you all for this special need. Praying and wishing you all a glorious Christmas and a blessed New Year. God bless us all.

Sincerely yours,
James Farmer, Sgt.
